STEEL MAKES NEW HIGH SINCE 1920

Oils, Equipments, Motors and Coppers Other Active Features of the Day

New York, Feb. 15. — The stock market continued to move toward irregularity, price levels today, although much of the advance was forfeited in the general profit-taking of the later dealings.

Further lowering of local money rates and signs that world-wide monetary conditions are tending in the direction of greater ease, together with the small floating supply of popular stocks, were the sustaining factors. Demand loans opened at 4 1/2 per cent, but fell to four per cent before noon. In private transactions, plenty of call money was available at 3 1/2 per cent.

The greater part of today's fairly large business was restricted to steel, oils, equipments, motors and coppers. United States Steel making a new high since 1920 and retaining all but the smallest fraction of its gain at 20 1/2. Ralls also showed further improvement, but buying of those issues lacked the substantial character of the previous day's accumulation.

Trade reviews again stressed the uncertain state of the steel and iron industry. This was strikingly illustrated in the annual report of the Midvale and Pressed Steel Car companies, which were in keeping with recent unfavorable forecasts.

Trading in foreign exchanges fell off perceptibly.

Liberty bonds closed as follows: 3 1/2, 96.94; first, 96.25; second, 96.12; first 4 1/2, 96.86; second 4 1/2, 96.76; third 4 1/2, 97.66; fourth 4 1/2, 97.20; Victory 3 1/2, 99.98; Victory 4 1/2, 100.16.

That Stamford, Ontario's bitterest baseball rival, is to be represented on the diamond this year by a team faster by far than any that has ever represented the Catskill mountain village, is indicated by the announcement from Stamford that practically the entire Holy Cross college team has been signed up. Last year Holy Cross had one of the best collegiate teams in the entire country, winning 32 out of 36 games played, among their victims being Yale, whom they walloped 14 to 1.

The pitching staff will be one of the best ever seen in this section and will include Bill Horan, Haddie Gill, Carl Mason and Conway. Horan is the Holy Cross ace, having lost but one game out of forty pitched for that institution. Gill pitched ten games for Holy Cross last year, winning them all, and Mason made a considerable reputation for himself for the University of Maine. Conway attended Georgetown university and has pitched for the Washington club in the American league. They will be received by Danny Martin of Holy Cross, who will act as captain of the team.

The infield will lineup with Garvey of Notre Dame on first, Kellough of Springfield on second, Gautreau of Holy Cross on short, and Dougherty also of Holy Cross holding down the hot corner. In the outfield there will be Leo and Len Dugan, both of Holy Cross, and Conway. The Dugans are brothers of the famous Joe Dugan, recently purchased from the Athletics by the Red Sox for $50,000. There are also two men of a calibre equal to those named above who are under consideration.

Ontario-Stamford series this year would be of a character surpassing even the hard fought struggles of the past. The games between the two teams have always been of keen interest to the fans and with Ontario and Stamford both represented with stronger teams than ever this year the contests will assume an added importance.

With State League Bowlers.

The state league bowlers took possession of the V. M. C. A. alleys last night and rolled up some good scores, although no records were broken, such as was the case at the previous session two weeks ago. The Lions and Tigers were matched together and the former took all three games. The high single game went to the Lions, who made 112 in the second round. Former was the high individual, with a total of 557.

The scores:

MRS. HATFIELD SABINA, OHIO

In Pitiable Condition When She Began Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Sabina, Ohio. — "I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weakness and irregularity. I was weak and nervous and could hardly stand on my feet, long enough to go to my work. I was this way for about a year and had tried several medicines and had a physician, but to no avail. My sister was taking your medicine and finally induced me to try it. I now feel fine and can do my housework without any trouble at all. You can use this letter for the sake of others if you wish." — Mrs. WELDON G. HATFIELD, R. R. 3, Sabina, Ohio.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so weak and nervous that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound should be taken when you first notice such symptoms as nervousness, backache, weakness and irregularity. It will help you and prevent more serious trouble.

SAVING OF HUMAN LIFE.

Since 1913 the general health rate in New York state has declined from 75.2 per thousand population to 73.8 in 1920. This means an annual saving of over 5,000 lives, or a total for the period of approximately 40,000. The reports for eleven months of 1921 show a rate still lower, the probable figure for the year being 73.4.

In the same time the death rate from tuberculosis has decreased from 24.7 per 100,000 population to 19.5 in 1920 and indications of 58.2 in 1921. Infant mortality has decreased over 25 per cent and the mortality from typhoid fever from 10.7 in 1909-1910 to 3.5.

Outstanding features, moreover, in state sanitary statistics are that New York has the best health laws of any state in the union, the most efficient and extensive health organization and the most highly developed, efficient and extensive laboratory service in the world.

There were formerly in the state 1,466 local boards of health, covering every city, town and village. These had regulations restricted to matters of local interest and in many instances conflicting with the sanitary requirements in adjoining health districts. There is now a sanitary code which is in effect a uniform health law for the state outside the city of New York.

The number of health districts has been reduced by consolidation, so that there are now 1,320 served by 90 health officers, who comprise a compact and efficient body of men.

There are for effective supervision and control fifteen sanitary districts, each under the supervision of a sanitary supervisor, thus giving the advantage of highly centralized administrative control and local supervision.

In the work of saving human life the division of sanitation has accomplished much through its oversight of water supplies, 550 of which now furnish the water for 8,800,000 persons. It also supervises milk pasteurizing plants, and it looks after and reports on major nuisances.

Whereas in 1910 there were but 550 beds available for tuberculosis outside the city of New York, there are now 87 county hospitals which with seven semi-private charitable institutions, have available bed capacity of 3,827. During 1920 there were 73 tuberculosis clinics, at which 2,363 patients were examined.

For the control of venereal diseases specialists in the past three years have lectured 1,590 times to an aggregate of a quarter of a million people. Millions of papers have been distributed and the number of dispensaries or clinics have increased from three to forty outside the big city, and in 1920 alone 75,000 treatments were given to individuals unable to employ private physicians.

In seven years the number of baby welfare stations has increased from 32, caring for 3,231 babies, to 107 in 63 municipalities and with care of 26,630 babies. Clinics are everywhere conducted and homes are visited to the end that the children of the state, being born right, shall grow right and become physically perfect men and women.

At the clinics for the after-care of cases of infantile paralysis, several of which have been held in Oneonta, there have been held in Oneonta, 1,200 physical examinations, and hospital care obtained for 500 crippled children.

While laboratory work has been greatly increased and public health education given more attention than ever before, one of the major problems remaining unsolved is how to provide adequate facilities for modern scientific diagnosis where the tests are not now available. For this purpose public health centers are proposed and these were provided in bills under consideration by the last two legislatures. It is confidently believed that this plan is not only practicable but desirable, and that it is absolutely essential if industrial workers and residents in rural communities are to have adequate medical and surgical care. This is perhaps the greatest problem as yet unsolved. When solved it will contribute immeasurably to public welfare, and its cost will be insignificant as compared with the benefits to be derived.

The above is merely a synopsis, and incomplete at that, of a paper on the "Work and Alma of the Health Department," which has lately been issued. The paper was written by F. D. Beagle, formerly of Otsego and well known in this city and vicinity, who for 23 years has been connected with the service of the state and is now executive clerk to the department of health. In that period the health service has increased from a bureau of vital statistics with six employees to a great department with ten divisions and a staff of 350. Among all the employees it is evident from a perusal of the article, there is not one more familiar with the work, or has the various phases of its activities more at tongue's end than has Mr. Beagle, whose services the department is fortunate in having been able for so long a time to retain.

MATTERS OF REAL INTEREST

Coal Strike and Coal Slump

What folly it would be for the leaders of miners' unions to call a strike in the depressed condition of the coal industry is further emphasized by the January shipments of anthracite coal.

Presumably there were some consumers who, overfearful lest their supply might be cut off with the outbreak of workers' sought to buy and store coal in advance of the trouble. Yet, as a matter of fact, whatever such anticipatory buying amounted to, the total anthracite shipments for January, in the face of the threatened strike at the end of next month, were only 1,818,977 tons, as against 5,740,523 in January last year.

When it is recalled how mild and almost sunny the winter was a year ago and how many frosty days there were in January this year a low in January anthracite shipments of nearly 300,000 tons or 14 per cent as compared with 1921, is a sharply significant warning to reckless strikers to watch their step.

Either anthracite coal consumers, judged by their slow buying of coal, are perfectly willing to get along with very small supplies as long as the strike lasts, or they are convinced that with hundreds of thousands of unemployed men hunting the country high and low for any kind of work a strike in the anthracite coal mines could not last long enough for anybody but the strikers to know that it had taken place.

The man who does not stick to a good job in these days as long as the good job will stick to him is a reckless gambler with fate.—[New York Herald.

Enough.

One of the bills in Albany proposes to add two new holidays to the state's Armistice Day and Roosevelt's birthday. There is no real demand for these additional holidays. Armistice Day is a big one to be sure; and so is Appomattox Day, which we have forgotten. Creating a day of idleness for Armistice Day, or for Colonel Roosevelt's birthday would not be believed that if Colonel Roosevelt was alive he would favor it. The Colonel he remembered, was a worker, not a clock watcher.—[Utica Observer.

DINNER TO JUSTICE KELLOGG

To Be Tendered by Otsego Bar at the New Penmore Hotel at Cooperstown Monday Evening—Hon. H. D. Hinman to Speak.

Otsego county attorneys are to tender a complimentary dinner to Hon. A. L. Kellogg, justice of the supreme court, at the New Penmore hotel at Cooperstown, on Monday evening next, the opening day of the February term of the supreme court at which Justice Kellogg is to preside. The bar of other counties in the district have since the elevation of Justice Kellogg to the supreme court bench given him a similar dinner and while he is perhaps most esteemed in his home county, the opportunity has not presented itself until now.

Hon. Harvey D. Hinman of Binghamton, one of the best known attorneys in the district, has been invited to attend and will be the chief speaker of the evening. The program has not been fully prepared but it is expected that several of the attorneys of the county will speak briefly, reading the esteem in which the resident justice is held by his associates of the bar of Otsego.

The arrangements are being completed, Attorney Lena W. Hathaway of Oneonta acting for the Otsego attorneys and L. E. Walrath of Cooperstown for the members residing at the county seat. The dinner is scheduled for 7 o'clock on the opening day, in order not to interfere with the work of the court when the trial of cases has been commenced.

Justice Kellogg has surprised even his friends in Otsego county with the satisfaction he has given to the bar of the district in the conduct of the courts over which he presides and the expeditious manner in which he disposes of many cases and the testimonial dinner is chosen as an avenue for an expression of their esteem and good wishes by his associates of the bar of Otsego.

It is expected that all of the attorneys in attendance at the opening of the court will be invited to participate in the dinner and doubtless there will be a large attendance of the lawyers of the county.

Valentine Party of Missionary Society.

The Young Ladies' Missionary society of the United Presbyterian church held a meeting Tuesday night with Miss Jennie Dunne, 41 Cedar street. The meeting was led by Mrs. Charles Swartz. An interesting program, given by several of the young ladies, included talks on the mission field, Alice Seward, Edna Tripp and Ellen Smith. A letter, written by Miss Kamette Howland, a worker in the mission field of India, who at one time was a member of the Otsego society, was read by the leader. Afterwards A. P. Brown, who had just returned from the New World Movement congress at Pittsburgh, gave a very inspiring talk. In absence of Valentine's day, the house, the refreshments and the committee were decorated with hearts, and there were original valentines for all. Miss Frances McLaurer won the prize for throwing the arrow most times through the deeply wounded heart. Twenty-one young ladies were present.

BANK TAX DECLARED VALID

Nearly Nine Million Dollars Saved Cities of State by Supreme Court Decision—Local Attorney Participated in the Case.

Albany, Feb. 15.—According to Deputy Attorney General Edward G. Griffin, nearly $9,000,000 has been saved to the cities of the state by the decision of the supreme court in New York city upholding the validity of the tax levied by the state, by permission of congress, of one per cent upon the capital of national banks.

The national banks doing business in this state attacked the assessment of the tax which would yield to the city of New York about $5,000,000, and to the upstate cities about $4,000,000, and the loss of which would probably require a readjustment of the budgets in the more important cities.

Attorney General Newton filed a brief in conjunction with the New York state conference of mayors, upholding the assessment of the tax against the Hanover National bank of New York city. The bank claimed under a recent decision of the United States affecting taxation of banks in Virginia that the New York state tax is unconstitutional.

It is probable that the case will be carried through the state courts and to the United States supreme court. Appearing with Attorney General Newton were Deputy Attorney General Edward G. Griffin, Corporation Counsel Owen C. Lecker of Oneonta, Corporation Counsel Elmer of Rochester, Deputy Counsel Platt of Rochester and Corporation Counsel Gregg of Syracuse.

ANOTHER OLD BIBLE.

Product of Printer in Amsterdam, Holland, and Rebound in 1733.

Mrs. John G. Oestrich of 25 Fancher avenue, Walton, writes as follows relative to an old German Bible which has been in the possession of her family many generations.

Editor Star—I read with much interest the article in yesterday's Oneonta Star (February 14) of the finding of the old Dutch Bible in the home of an Orange county lady.

One of your Delaware county subscribers would like to state that in his possession is an old German Bible, printed in Amsterdam, Holland. The exact date of printing is not known but it was rebound in 1732.

During the war of 1814 against Napoleon Bonaparte this Bible was carried by a Mr. Donges, a great great uncle of the present owner, through the battle of Leipzig and again during the war of 1815, through the battle of Waterloo.

It measures 8 1/2 inches by 3 1/2 inches by 1 1/2 inches, and was given Mr. Donges by an uncle living in Amsterdam, Holland, who was a wealthy merchant there during Mr. Donges' boyhood.

John G. Oestrich of Walton, Delaware county, is the present owner of this book and it is needless to say he has refused several offers for it.

I submit this to you thinking it might be of some interest to you and possibly to some of your other subscribers.

CHORAL CLASS CONCERT

Entertainment at Woman's Club Last Evening Greatly Enjoyed by Large Number of Members—Lincoln the Theme of Part of Program.

The Choral class concert given at the Woman's club last evening proved to be one of the most interesting of the club entertainments held this season. There was a large attendance of members, all of them enjoying to the full the artistic numbers.

The program printed in yesterday's Star was given by the Choral class, which had been well drilled for the occasion by the class director, James Keeton, Jr. Each selection was well rendered and deserved the liberal applause accorded. Forty members of the class participated, many of them dressed in colonial costumes.

The second part of the program consisted of an interesting display of lantern slides depicting incidents in the life of Abraham Lincoln and an address on Lincoln by Prof. A. M. Curtis of the Normal faculty. The slides were shown by Secretary Lange of the Y. M. C. A. Prof. Curtis' talk was a most interesting discussion of the life and character of the martyred president. He illustrated many of his points by reading extracts from John Drinkwater's famous drama, "Abraham Lincoln."

The rooms, both upstairs and down, were tastefully decorated with American and allied flags and with small pine trees artistically placed. Eloise Augustus was in charge of the decorations. For the success of the entertainment, which was the first venture of the Choral club, a large share of the credit is due Mrs. Charles W. Collins, who was in charge of the program.

NEW QUARTERS FOR KNIGHTS

Oneonta Council, Knights of Columbus, Leaves Top Floor of Taskaris Block for Lodge and Club Rooms—Will Take Possession March 15.

The Oneonta Council of Knights of Columbus will, after March 15, occupy the top floor of the Taskaris block at the corner of Main and Dietz streets as their lodge and club rooms. It was announced yesterday by officials of the council. Workmen are at present engaged in alterations, which will provide the Knights with most attractive rooms and in an unexcelled location.

The front portion will be used as a lodge room and for dances and social entertainments. A new floor is being laid and a balcony for an orchestra constructed. Back of this room will be reading and card rooms and a kitchenette fully equipped for the serving of light lunches. The partition has been changed to provide separate entrances into the lodge room and reading room, so that the members can have independent access to the latter on occasions when the front room has been rented to organizations or individuals for dances or other social functions. Still, the council will make it possible for a dance hall when necessary. The rooms will be handsomely decorated and equipped with ultra-comfortable chairs and other furnishings.

The change has been made by the Council because of the lack of space in their present quarters in the Lane and Scotchard block. The new quarters will be more private and more commodious and will be in a location that for convenience cannot be excelled in the city. It is expected that the formal opening will take place on St. Patrick's night, March 17.

FAVORS A NEW SCHOOL

Sixth Ward Civic League Urges New Building to Take Place of Present River Street School—Miss Fraser Gives Address.

The recently-organized Civic league of the sixth ward went on record last night in favor of a new school building in that ward, but postponed until a later meeting any further action on the subject.

There was a large attendance at the meeting, which was held in the River street school, and several new members were taken into the league. The school question has aroused great interest in the sixth ward, and the discussion was general at the meeting, although it was necessarily brief on account of other features of the evening. Dr. Dann spoke with reference to the school problem, explaining the overcrowded condition of the present structure and the necessity of providing additional facilities in the near future.

There seems to be a difference of opinion with regard to the site for a new building. The lot on London avenue on which the board of education is reported to have secured an option is not regarded with general favor in the River street district. The principal objection being that it is not on high enough ground. It is rumored that the board of education is looking about for another site for the proposed building.

At the close of the business session, the league heard an interesting address on Americanization by Miss Charlotte Fraser. Her remarks were timely and interesting and the league gave her a vote of thanks for her kindness in being present at the meeting. The importance of adequate educational facilities in Americanization work was emphasized by Miss Fraser.

D. & H. MINSTRELS TONIGHT

Company of 55 Vocalists, Minstrels and Specialty Artists Arrived Last Night—Performance at Oneonta Theatre This Evening at 8:15 O'clock.

The D. & H. Minstrel troupe, 55 strong, arrived in the city on the 8:40 p. m. train last night from Albany, and by Frederick L. Hanlon, the general manager, and the members of the company are quartered at the Oneonta and Windsor hotels. This is the company, composed entirely of employees of the D. & H. company, which gave a finished performance at Harmanus Bleeker hall in Albany a few weeks since to a crowded house and was pronounced one of the best shows of its kind ever given in that city. The company will present the same performance at the Oneonta theatre this evening at 8 o'clock. It is styled "A 1922 Version of Old Fashioned Minstrelsy."

The company will have a dress rehearsal at the theatre this afternoon in preparation for the entertainment this evening. Oneonta music lovers will meet an old friend in the person of W. F. Sheehan, soloist. Mr. Sheehan, it will be remembered, made an excellent impression as soloist with the Elks Minstrels of this city in 1916. In addition to Mr. Sheehan, there are some 11 other soloists, who, though perhaps not personally known here, are of the same high calibre. They are well known vocalists in their home cities.

In addition to the soloists, the troupe has a number of male quartets, which in both quarter and chorus numbers will be heard with pleasure. The array of musical talent is such that those who are fortunate enough to secure seats for the performance (there are but a few unoccupied) are assured a fine musical treat.

F. DeForest Jones, formerly and for four seasons with Keith's vaudeville circuit and a most captivating entertainer, will be heard in a monologue entitled, "From Minstrelsy to Radio and Back Again," one brimful of laughs, which will be rendered in an inimitable manner by a man of excellent ability and extended experience.

The D. & H. Scrapiron Dramatic club is to present Schoolmaster MacGregor and His Pupils in "A Day at the Circus," the program announcing the "Book by the Accounting Department," "Lyrics by the Master Boiler-maker," and "Costumes by the Master Car Builder."

Indications are that a full house will greet the visiting minstrels when the curtain goes up tonight, as the ticket committee report a large sale and the large part of the orchestra circle was reserved within a short time after the theatre box office opened yesterday. The few tickets remaining will probably be taken up early today.

Woman's Club.

Open house this afternoon from 3 until 6. Program at 4 o'clock. Miss Barrett will review the book "Shackled Youth," by Edward Yeomans. Tea will be served.

Mrs. Elmer will be present to receive dues.

DOUGLAS MALLOCH COMING

Chicago "Poet of the Woods" Secured to Address Oneonta Gathering Again on Friday, March 3.

Announcement is made that the annual banquet of the Oneonta Chamber of Commerce will be held on Friday evening, March 3, and preparations are being made for one of the largest social functions in the organization's year.

Douglas Malloch of Chicago, "the poet of the woods," has been secured to address an Oneonta gathering again at this banquet, and this one speaker alone gives assurance to all who have heard him during his previous visits to Oneonta, that a highly enjoyable evening lies in store for them. Mr. Malloch, who is past president of the American Press Humorists and holds an enviable reputation as a journalist as well as an after-dinner speaker, was secured a month ago for the banquet engagement by President Roscoe C. Briggs of the Chamber of Commerce, and the humorist rearranged the itinerary for his eastern trip in order to talk here. Confirmation of the date of March 3 has been received by the Chamber.

Program of Work Suggestions.

Postponing until this (Thursday) evening the time by which all members are requested to send back their ballots on proposed program of work plans, has been arranged in order to permit a larger number of members to record their wishes as to the Chamber's activities the ensuing year. Ballot sheets containing suggestions made at the annual meeting were mailed to all members Monday, with the request that they record their approval or disapproval of the 33 measures listed, and write their original suggestions on the memorandum card sent them, returning both to the Chamber of Commerce.

In addition to voting on the original suggestions, the 100 members who have already returned the ballot sheets proposed a number of other activities. The sentiment on quite a few proposals seems to be about evenly divided between approval and disapproval, so that it will be difficult in these specific cases for the program of Work committee to decide the consensus of opinion of the membership unless votes yet to come indicate a decided preference for these projects.

HELD FOR FEDERAL COURT

Case of Howard Crawford, Arrested by Federal Prohibition Agents, Heard Before U. S. Commissioner at Birmingham Yesterday.

Howard Crawford, arrested at Portlandville on Monday by federal prohibition officers, who found two stills and a quantity of alleged liquor in his home, was arraigned before United States Commissioner R. S. Wickham at Birmingham yesterday afternoon. He was represented by former District Attorney Orange L. Van Horn of Cooperstown.

Crawford waived examination and was held for the United States district court, which sits in Syracuse on April 4. The case will probably not go before the grand jury, but will be presented directly to the court by the United States district attorney. Crawford is held at present for illegal possession, but inasmuch as stills and a quantity of mash were found in the house, he may also be tried for illicit manufacture of liquor. Bail, which was continued at $1,000 by Commissioner Wickham, was furnished.

LOOKS WITH FAVOR ON FORD PROPOSAL

Muscle Shoals Should Be Operated Continuously for Making Fertilizer, Sec. Wallace Says

Washington, Feb. 15. — Henry C. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, looks with favor upon Henry Ford's offer for purchase and lease of the government nitrate and water power projects at Muscle Shoals, Ala., "if the terms are sufficiently definite and leading to make sure the plant will be operated continuously for the manufacture of fertilizer."

Dr. Richard C. Tolman, director of the best nitrogen research laboratory of the department, announced the secretary's position with regard to the Ford offer in an authorized statement he read yesterday before the house military committee. The secretary's views as expressed by the witness were that if the terms were as he had outlined the proposal would "result in making available a considerably increased supply of fertilizer in time of peace and give us assurance of adequate supplies of explosives in case of war."

The statement was read by Dr. Tolman after the committee had completed an examination lasting more than five hours of W. B. Mayo, chief engineer and personal representative of Henry Ford. Mr. Mayo's testimony included repeated statements that Mr. Ford intended to manufacture fertilizers in three completed forms at the maximum production capacity of the Muscle Shoals plants and would make every effort to manufacture them at a minimum cost to the farmers.

To Stop Youthful Drivers

Albany, Feb. 15. — Persons under 18 will be barred from driving automobiles under any circumstances by the Lowman bill, which is on the calendar for discussion in the senate Monday.

The bill strikes out the provision that children of 16 may drive a car if accompanied by the owner of the car or a licensed chauffeur. And through the requirement of an operator's license, provision is made to enforce the ban against child drivers.

FARMINGDALE CHICK COLONY ALL ASTIR

900 Pullets Establish Envyable Records in Three-Year Egg Laying Contest

(By The Associated Press.)

Farmingdale, Feb. 15.—The exclusive young flogger section at the State Institute of Applied Agriculture was all astir with excitement today. There was much artificial cooking of heads and preening of fine feathers. For in some way the news had gotten about that before nightfall all the good floggers, just budding into henhood, were to get beautiful young husbands, with delightful backgrounds of wealth and social position.

The fact, savoring of Asia, that the bride-to-be had never seen their future husbands didn't seem to bother the floggers. Nor did the fact that each was to share her husband with 19 others. Monogamy still is unknown in the world of White Leghorns, Rhode Island Reds and Plymouth Rocks.

Today's weddings mark the second stage of a three-year egg-laying and poultry breeding contest being conducted by J. A. Ahrens, head of the institute's poultry department.

During the last year, 900 pullets from all parts of the East have been devoting their energies solely to egg laying, and have established enviable records for themselves. The contestants entered by poultry raisers for the experiment—conducted last 1917-18 eggs in the year, or an average of 152.11 per pullet.

A single comb White Leghorn, owned by J. J. Loveland of New York, carried off first prize with 282 eggs. Mr. Loveland's White Leghorns per pullet carried off the pen prize with a total of 2,729 eggs. The pen prize pullets out of the 900 entered, that produced 200 or more eggs.

The second, or breeding phase of the contest, which starts with today's matings, will continue through March, April and May, each bride being allotted a setting of 10 eggs. The hens will not be permitted to hatch their own families, however, this detail being attended to in incubators.

Next fall, 20 pullets from each pen—one from each hen's brood as far as possible—will be selected and placed in the pens their parents occupied.

Tests as to their skill as layers and parents, conducted during the following season, will conclude the contest. The objects of the contest, which is supported by a $15,000 appropriation of the legislature and by fees from entrants, are:

To encourage selection of stock and a closer study of the physical characteristics which determine a bird's producing and breeding ability.

To furnish each poultry raiser with an accurate record of eggs produced and the breeding ability of each hen entered.

To return to the farm at the end of each year some registered birds with their records of performance, which may be used in establishing a definite and successful method of breeding.

And to demonstrate to poultry raisers the methods and practices in breeding and management that will lead to higher production and greater profits.

LARKIN HIGH COMMISSIONER.

President of the Salada Tea Company, Is Honored by Premier of Canada.

The appointment of T. C. Larkin, president of the Salada Tea Company, by Premier Mackenzie of Canada as high commissioner to London, is considered in the Dominion the highest honor in the gift of the Canadian government. The fact that Mr. Larkin has been a life-long Liberal, and is accounted a leader in the political and business life of Canada, as well as a close personal friend of the head of the Dominion government, makes his appointment acceptable on all sides.

The position of High Commissioner to London is considered a somewhat similar to that of our ambassador to the Court of St. James, and carries with it the same high privileges and responsibilities. Mr. Larkin has already accepted the position and will sail for England next month.

Senator Lusk Modest.

Cortland, Feb. 15. — Senator Clayton R. Lusk has introduced a bill amending the law providing for the erection of the new Cortland Normal school. It provides for the equipment and furnishings of buildings and repairs and improvements of buildings on the site at the time of its acquisition. The former appropriation of $750,000 is increased to $1,250,000. The state architect will prepare plans and specifications for improvement of building on the acquired site. The equipment, fixtures and furniture needed shall be purchased by the local board of managers, subject to the approval of the state commissioner of education.

Granada in Moonlight.

Think for some moments upon the vast achievement of the Moors in Spain in the long ago. Have you sat in moonlit Granada and contemplated the Alhambra there? If so, has not your spirit been awakened with a silent story of a lost civilization, compared to which many others of its kind seem mean? Here is a glimpse-like lace in place of towering massiveness, but the Alhambra in the silvery light of night is to some minds more wondrous, more ghost-stirring, than the Colosseum of Rome. Henry Leach writes in Chambers' Journal.

HISTORIC OREGON WILL BECOME FLOATING MEMORIAL

Washington, Feb. 15.—Under scrapping provisions of the naval treaty the historic battleship Oregon will probably become a stationary floating memorial to her great days as "Pulchra of the Navy."

Her big guns that roared in triumph at Santiago will be silenced; the pulse of the huge engines that drove her 14,000 miles to reach the fighting front will be still forever; but her appearance she will remain as she was, to stir the pride of future generations of Americans.

KANSAS WOMAN HAS 274 DESCENDANTS

"Old-Fashioned Cooking" Is Recipe Mrs. Perkins, 98, Gives For Her Longevity

Sabeth, Kan., Feb. 15. — Mrs. Bertha Perkins, who will be 98 years old next April, found a real thrill recently when three additional great grandchildren arrived in three Sabetha homes, within a period of 48 hours. They brought the number of her descendants up to 274.

Mrs. Perkins' five generations of descendants are divided as follows: 16 children, eight of whom are living; 75 grandchildren; 155 great grandchildren; 25 great great grandchildren; 3 great great great grandchildren.

Mrs. Perkins was born in Virginia in 1824, married David Perkins in Ohio, March 15, 1843. Her maiden name was Bertha Marcum. In 1848 they emigrated to Iowa, and in 1857 took a homestead in this—Monahans county—where she has lived ever since. Mr. Perkins died in 1893.

"Good and old fashioned cooking," is the recipe Mrs. Perkins gives for her longevity. "It is no wonder people do not live to old age like they used to, considering the rich foods they put in their stomachs nowadays. People do not eat enough coarse food, then bread once or twice a day would improve their health. Here are a few of her ideas as she expressed them: 'I believe women should all their husbands in cooking right, but do not believe women should go into politics or vote.'

"Cooking courses in schools and colleges run too much to fudge and fancy dishes, I believe still that the best place for a girl to learn housekeeping and cooking is from her mother—but

I am in doubt whether some of these modern day mothers know much about such things.

"Work is the best tonic. Why, I do something every day. In the summer time I take care of my vegetable garden. Last summer I raised so many vegetables I had them to pass around among the neighbors."

YOUNG OFFENDERS PAROLED

Boys Arrested Yesterday for Wholesale Pilfering Promise to Behave in the Future and Judge Huntington Is Lenient With Them.

Wilson Jones and John Davis, who with Elmer VanZandt were arrested yesterday for wholesale pilfering from business firms and private individuals, were paroled in the custody of Miss Bertha Foster, executive secretary of the Family Social Work Association, by Judge Huntington, in city court yesterday morning. The VanZandt had been paroled in Miss Foster's custody when the boys were arraigned the previous afternoon.

Judge Huntington severely reprimanded the boys and told them that if they did not behave themselves better in the future, that more drastic action would be taken. The boys, the oldest of whom is only 14, promised to stop the thieving and to conduct themselves like other boys from now on.

An entirely new kind of soap

For all the regular family wash

More cleansing power than bar soap

A new kind of soap.

Soap made of pure materials combined in such a way that it has more cleansing power than soap has ever had before.

This new kind of soap gently soaks loose the most ground-in dirt without weakening a single thread.

Rinso dissolves completely and almost at once in boiling water. It gives such soapy water, such big lasting suds that soaking does almost all the work instead of a small part of it. Even the worst soiled spots need but a light rubbing with dry Rinso.

Rinso soaks clothes so clean that boiling isn't necessary. But if you like to boil your white cottons see what a difference it makes in your boiler.

If you have a washing machine help it do its best work by using Rinso in it. Rinso takes the place of bar soap at every step of the family wash.

Rinso is made by the largest soap makers in the world. Get Rinso today at grocery and department stores. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.
